Girls' Education

“Education is one of the most critical areas of empowerment for women. When girls are educated, they lead healthier and more productive lives. . . . An educated girl has a positive ripple effect on her health, family, community and society as a whole.”

How the Target Program Makes a Difference

EDUCATION AND AWARENESS RAISING:

Increase our knowledge of issues related to women's and girl's education

The screenshot shows the FAWCO website's 'Education' page. At the top, the FAWCO logo is displayed with the tagline 'empowering women worldwide since 1931'. A navigation menu includes 'HOME', 'UN ISSUES', 'US ISSUES', 'GLOBAL ISSUES', 'PHILANTHROPY', 'MEMBERS ONLY', 'JOIN FAWCO', and 'RESOURCES'. The main content area features a quote from USAID: "Education is one of the most critical areas of empowerment for women. When girls are educated, they lead healthier and more productive lives. They gain the skills, knowledge and self-confidence to escape the cycle of poverty. They become better citizens, parents and breadwinners. An educated girl has a positive ripple effect on her health, family, community and society as a whole." - USAID. Below the quote are four small images: a group of students in a classroom, two girls reading a book, a group of children in school uniforms, and a woman riding a bicycle. The page also mentions 'FAWCO Benefactor accent' and 'Stay Up-to-Date'.

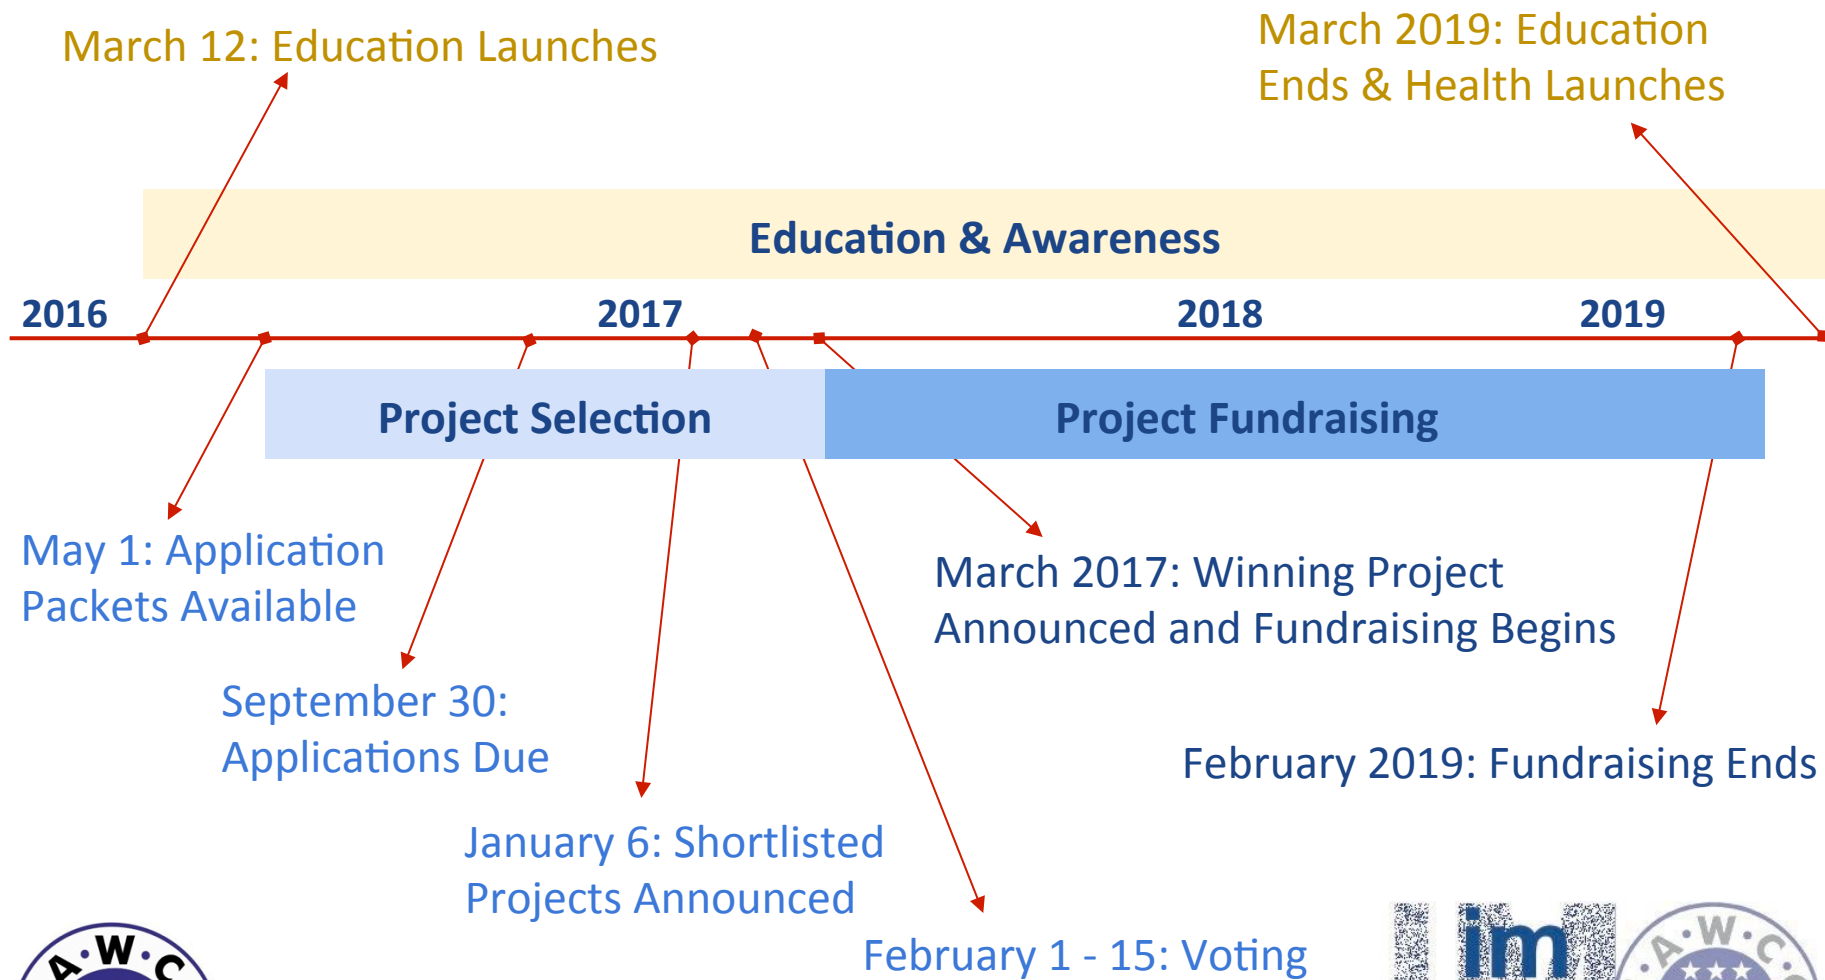

The screenshot shows the 'Target Program: Education Bulletin' page. It features the FAWCO logo and the tagline 'Inspiring Women Worldwide'. The title is 'Target Program: Education Bulletin'. A quote by Malala Yousafzai reads: "One child, one teacher, one book, and one pen, can change the world." - Malala Yousafzai. The page includes a 'Hello!' section, a welcome message from the Education Task Force, and a photo of Tricia R. Saur, the Target Program Chair. The page also mentions 'Update your subscriptions now and click Target Program on the list.' and 'Staying cool in Cologne.'
